

Jesus came to seek

Jesus came to seek,
to look, to find
the lost souls
of all of mankind.

He came to call,
all to repentance
took upon Himself
their penitence.

Jesus came to save,
all who were lost
to bring them to God
no matter the cost.

He sought to find,
hearts willing to be filled with His indwelling.

Jesus came to seek,
He looked, He sought
all of mankind . . .
who sought Him not!

Methodist Women's Fellowship:

We have our annual meeting with our District visitors on Wednesday 9th November, 1.30 pm in the Sydenham Lounge.

Our speaker is Rev. Jannet sharing her Ministry Experiences in NZ. Dianne will share the recent National Council Meeting.

Please bring a small plate for afternoon tea and transport can be arranged.

We are selling our usual Christmas gifts: Nancy Tichborn calendars - $15, diaries - $12 and all occasion cards - $18.

The Globe: We acknowledged our ONE FAITH, ONE LORD, ONE WORLD globe last Sunday. This is the only gift from the Sydenham Methodist Church when we combined in the early '70s.

The late Rev. Andrew Johnston wanted a Memorial for five members who had served in World War Two. They were Alan Pashby, Fred Baird, Len Rule, Len Butler (father of Denise Weir) and lastly David Hume a member of our Boys' Brigade company. Mr Walter Price, the organist constructed the brass fittings.

Lectionary Readings next week:

Haggai 1: 1, 15 b - 2: 9
Psalm 145: 1 5, 17 - 21 or Psalm 98
2 Thessalonians 2: 1 - 5, 13 - 17
Luke 20: 27 - 38
